NORTHWESTERN AIR LEASE LTD.

PURPOSE OF A TARIFF

The term "Tariff" is defined in the CTA as:

“A schedule of fares, rates, charges and terms and conditions of carriage applicable to the provision of an air service and other incidental services”.

Tariffs should outline the terms and conditions under which the carrier operates its business as it relates to the transportation of passengers, baggage or goods. Although most carriers will have similar tariffs, each carrier should ensure that its tariff is applicable to and meets the needs of its own operation and is in accordance with the provisions of the CTA and the ATR.

The purpose of a tariff is to protect both the carrier and the consumer against unexpected demands or conditions imposed upon it by the other party due to misunderstanding. It functions as the contract of carriage between the passenger and the carrier.

NORTHWESTERN AIR LEASE LTD.Compensation for denial of boarding

Overbooking is a practice within the airline industry in which some airlines confirm more seats on an aircraft than available. We are pleased to let you know NWAL never intentionally overbooks flights. Although we do not overbook our flights there may be rare situations when an unforeseen overbooking may occur. In the unlikely event we need to deny boarding due to a factor within our control (unless due to safety), the effected passenger(s) may be entitled to the following compensation:

Arrival Delay Length	Monetary Compensation
Less than 6 hours	$ 900.00 CAD
Greater than 6 hours but less than 9	$ 1800.00 CAD
9 hours or more	$ 2400.00 CAD

Prior to denying boarding, NWAL will seek volunteer(s) to willingly travel on the next available flight. In the event that there are no volunteers NWAL will deny boarding, giving priority to the following passengers;

- Unaccompanied minors
- Passenger(s) with disabilities
- Service animals
- Passenger(s) who are travelling with family members
- Passenger(s) who were previously denied boarding on the same ticket

NWAL will not provide compensation to those people denied boarding for the following reasons:

- Health, safety, or security reasons;
- Failing to follow carrier rules or restrictions;
- Because the passenger doesn't have appropriate travel documents; or

NORTHWESTERN AIR LEASE LTD.

- The passenger has failed to respect check-in and departure gate cut-off time limits.

Issuing Compensation

Compensation will be provided in the form of money, unless all measures below are satisfied:

NWAL provides you written confirmation of the value of the alternate compensation;

- The alternate compensation doesn't expire;
- As the customer you must confirm in writing you were informed of your right to receive monetary compensation but have agreed to the alternate compensation proposed by NWAL.

If compensation is due and we cannot provide it before the departure of your new travel arrangements we will provide written confirmation of the amount of compensation that is owed. Compensation will be provided to you within 48 hours after your departure. If compensation is issued and the flight arrives at your final destination later than expected, you may be entitled to further compensation. NWAL will provide the difference in compensation owed.

Q: What is permitted onboard:

A: A small purse or handbag, medication, cell phone or laptop. Open alcohol is not permitted on any NWAL flights. Whatever the item being carried on, it must fit within the allowed sizes in the framework found at every counter.

It must fit within the size limitations of the access doors on the aircraft. We cannot guarantee you instrument will be accepted if it does not meet our requirements.

Tarmac Delays

NORTHWESTERN AIR LEASE LTD.

A tarmac delay occurs when an airplane on the ground is either awaiting takeoff or has just landed and passengers are held onboard, away from the gate, with the door closed.
